Dear PSA Members & Colleagues:

I am happy to welcome you to Oakland, California for the 81st annual meetings of the Pacific Sociological Association. This year’s conference reaches back to our roots, recognizing the half-century anniversary of C. Wright Mills’ The Sociological Imagination, while looking forward to our future with the theme, “Revitalizing the Sociological Imagination: Individual Troubles & Social Issues in a Turbulent World.” The wide-ranging program will have something to offer to all. To whet your appetite, here is a preview of some of the high-profile Presidential sessions and events you can look forward to:

- An evening plenary address on C. Wright Mills and the “political imagination,” by former ASA president Michael Burawoy;
- A session including three winners of the ASA’s highest award for feminist sociology, the Jessie Bernard Award, reflects on “the feminist imagination” in sociology;
- Herman Gray leads a panel of scholars who regularly inject an “interdisciplinary imagination” into sociology;
- Raewyn Connell facilitates a panel discussion on doing “good sociology on a world scale”;
- Current ASA president Evelyn Nakano Glenn leads a group of scholars in a discussion of the political and economic relevance of skin color.

This is just a sampling of an exciting array of sessions that await you at this year’s meetings. In addition, my Presidential Address will reflect on a common challenge faced by many sociologists: teaching about social inequality and privilege. I hope to see you there.

President Michael Messner, USC

Preliminary Program – Brief Version

81st Annual Meeting Oakland, California April 8-11 2010

Theme: Revitalizing the Sociological Imagination: Individual Troubles & Social Issues in a Turbulent World

Visit pacificsoc.org for the complete program and index of presenters, which will be updated periodically as changes and corrections occur.

Please inform us at psa@csus.edu of errors and cancellations!

Important Notice!

Registration & membership dues for those listed in the Preliminary Program:

Several points about meeting pre-registration, program participation, and membership are discussed below. These items need your attention.

1. Pre-registration and Membership Dues

Who has to pay registration fees for 2010?

If you are listed on the program and will be attending, you must pre-register for the annual meeting before March 15 in order for your name to be listed in the final program. A membership and registration form is included in the January newsletter; it is also available at pacificsoc.org. You may also pay online. If you have not already paid pre-registration, please return the form with your payment. If you were a member in 2009, you should already have received a renewal for 2010 dues and a pre-registration form for the annual meeting.

Who doesn’t have to pay registration fees?

If you are listed on the program but will NOT be attending the annual meeting, you do not have to pay pre-registration fees. If you are not attending, you do not have to pay registration fees.
Who also has to pay 2010 membership dues?

If you are listed on the program and you will be attending the meeting, and you are a sociologist (e.g., undergraduate and grad student majors, faculty members or applied sociologist) and you reside in the Pacific region (AZ, CA, NM, UT, NV, CO, HI, MT, OR, AK, ID, ALBERTA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, BAJA CA, SONORA, OR CHIHUAHUA), you must pay pre-registration fees and also 2010 membership dues.

Who doesn’t have to pay 2010 dues?

If you are listed on the program but will not be attending the conference, you do not need to pay membership dues. If you are listed on the program and are attending the conference, you do not need to pay membership dues if you a) are not a sociologist (meaning you are not a sociology faculty member or an applied sociologists or an undergrad or grad student majoring in sociology) and/or b) you do not reside in the Pacific region.

However, everyone listed on the program is encouraged to become a member in 2010.

2. Program Participation

Being on the program means being listed in any position – presider, moderator, panelist, critic, roundtable presenter, roundtable presider/discussant, seminar leader/presenter, discussant, session organizer, presenter, workshop leader, speaker, etc. In short, any place your name appears is counted as participation.

3. Attendance at the Meeting

If you are attending the meeting but are not on the program, you are expected to pay either pre-registration fees or registration fees at the door. Pre-registration fees are US/CDN$40 for faculty and/or over US$15,000 income per year and US/CDN$20 for students and/or under US$15,000 income per year. Registration fees at the door will be US/CDN$50 for faculty and/or over US$15,000 income per year and US/CDN$25 for students and/or under US$15,000 annual income. Please see the Membership and Registration Form at PACIFICSOC.ORG or in the January newsletter. You may also pay online.

If you have questions about your status and these required dues and fees and/or you would like information about how to pay them, please contact the PSA at 916.278.5254; fax 916.278.6281; or psa@csus.edu

Candidates for Executive Director Sought

The Pacific Sociological Association seeks candidates for the position of Executive Director. The Executive Director is the principal staff officer of the PSA and reports directly to the PSA Council. He or she has primary responsibility for PSA correspondence, for budgeting, for maintaining and updating financial accounts, the disbursement of funds, the membership list and email and snail mail addresses of members, organizing and administering the annual meeting, and coordinating with other support staff, the PSA Council and the committees of the association. Additional support staff may include a treasurer, secretary, and office manager or student assistant.

It is expected that the successful candidate will be an active or recently active faculty member from a college or university in the Pacific region, and that compensation, if required, will primarily be in the form of partial release time paid for by the PSA. Alternative arrangements may be possible and different kinds of candidates may be considered.

The final terms of the appointment, including compensation, will be subject to negotiation.

Applications and nominations should be sent to the PSA Office at psa@csus.edu. Applications and nominations should include a CV, a statement describing the nature of the applicant’s interest in the position, an indication of the kind of support if any (e.g. release time) that the applicant is seeking, and a list of at least three professional references aware of the candidate’s managerial experience and/or interest and capacity.

The starting date of the individual selected could be July 1, 2010 or July 1, 2011 or July 1, 2012 or a different time given negotiations. The position will remain open until an Executive Director is hired. For a more detail description of the duties and obligations of this position visit pacificsoc.org and click on the link “Executive Director Position.”

Room Share in Oakland

If you need a roommate to share expenses at the Marriott Central City in Oakland, please contact the PSA Office at psa@csus.edu to be put in touch with others seeking the same.

Have You Published A Book Recently?

If you have published a book in 2008 or 2009 or will in 2010, please inform us at psa@csus.edu and it will be listed at pacificsoc.org under “recent books published by members.”

Hotel Information

Marriott Oakland City Center

The 2010 Annual Meeting will take place at the Marriott Oakland City Center, 1001 Broadway, Oakland CA. The hotel is located in the heart of downtown and is connected to the convention center. The Marriott is 11 stories tall and provides dramatic views of the area. The hotel has bars, a restaurant, pool, gym, and full-service business center. Every room offers high-speed internet, coffee maker, hair dryer, and iron and ironing board.

It is a short walk to Old Oakland, Chinatown, Jack London Square and the Oakland Museum. There are many restaurants nearby. A farmer’s market takes place every Friday right outside. There is easy access to the entire Bay Area via BART, across the street; San Francisco is a 12 minute ride and the popular restaurant & walking streets of Oakland & Berkeley – Solano, University & College – are not far. The ferry at Jack London will take you to SF Pier 41, Fisherman’s Wharf & Angel Island.

Support the PSA by booking at the Marriott. This will assure that we meet our contract and keep costs low, since meeting room rental will not have to be paid. Not meeting the room block would have serious consequences and would most likely increase the cost of registration at future meetings.

Airport transportation: the closest airport to the Marriott is Oakland. The easiest & cheapest way to get to the hotel is via BART: take the Oakland Airport BART Shuttle from the airport, which leaves from the baggage claim area every 20 minutes, to the Coliseum station; then take the Richmond-bound train to 12th Street City Center station in Oakland. Take the 11th St. steps and you will come out facing the Oakland Marriott City Center Hotel.

From SFO, you can access the BART station at Level 3 of the International Terminal. The station has two entrances, a walk-in entrance on Level 3 and another accessible from Air Train, the airport’s shuttle train that connects various airport terminals. From the SFO BART station take the Pittsburg/Bay Point train ($5.25) to 12th Street City Center Station in Oakland.

You may also take a taxi or shuttle from either the Oakland or SF Airports.

Call for Sessions: 2011 Meeting

Seattle, Washington • March, 10-13

The 2011 program theme, Sociologists as Claimsmakers: Turning Theory into Action, is one in which we can examine the development of sociology from its early roots in Europe to the challenges that we sociologists face as we move into a global society. Consider our founder, Auguste Comte, who claimed that a special social science (sociology) was needed to establish laws or theories about social life that could be used to prescribe cures for social ills. Harriet Martineau claimed, and developed, a social science methodology necessary for studying social behavior. Durkheim, another giant in the field, claimed that suicide may be an individual choice, but demonstrated by testing his theory, that the likelihood of committing suicide varied by social positions and group membership. His theory is still widely used. As one examines the contributions of other early sociologists such as Marx and Weber, all made claims about the organization of societies, and their views either complemented, differed or extended existing sociological thinking. Lester Ward, an instrumental leader in the development of sociology in the United States, like Comte, claimed that sociologists should identify basic laws or theories of society and use the knowledge to improve human life. Not all American sociologists shared this view, and this was very apparent at the University of Chicago (UC) in the late 1800s and early 1900s. UC was a man’s world; if women sociologists wanted to engage in sociology, they had to find another home.

This led to the founding of Hull House by Jane Addams and Ellen Gates Starr (1889). The women at Hull House became social activists, concerned with creating a more egalitarian society. This social activist view was not popular, and soon, these women were pushed out of sociology and moved to other disciplines such as social work. From the mid-1940s to the mid-1960s, sociology focused primarily on theory development, research and presentation/publication; knowledge for the sake of knowledge. Application was frowned upon. It was not until the turmoil of the 1960s and 1970s that sociologists began to look to the writings of contemporary sociologists, such as C. Wright Mills, and claim that the discipline should be used to address the social ills of the world.

So, throughout the development of sociology, even today, there exist different views about the role of sociology. Should sociology be a science that simply contributes to knowledge about society, or should it be a discipline that uses sociological knowledge to address social problems, or can a sociologist be both, letting their research problem dictate their approach? No matter how you define yourself as a sociologist, the program theme, “Sociologists as Claimsmakers: Turning Theory into Action” is broad enough to cover all sociological claims, perspectives, topics, methods, and presentation formats.

We look forward to lively discussions and debates at the 2011 PSA meeting in Seattle, March 10-13. The PSA has not been in Seattle since 1996 – 15 years ago. Thomas Scheff was President then and remains active in the PSA.

Nominate yourself or your colleagues today to organize a session. Proposal forms will be available at the 2010 meeting, at the registration table. You can also send nominations & session suggestions by May 1, 2010 to Program Chair Lucy Dwight, Department of Sociology, University of Colorado Denver, Lawrence Street Center, P. O. Box 173164, Denver, CO 80217-3164 (also 303.315.2145 & lucy.dwight@ucdenver.edu). Sessions may be submitted online at PACIFICSOC.ORG. Only proposals received by May 1 will be printed in the May 2010 Newsletter. Proposals submitted by August 1 will be included in the second call for proposals in the September Newsletter.

Volunteer for Committee Service

Committees are vital to the proper functioning of the Association. Each year there are vacancies on the various committees that must be filled. Each year the Committee on Committees is looking for interested and committed members who can be recommended to the President and the Council for possible appointment.

Committee Membership must represent the Southern, Central, and Northern sections of the western region. Usually there is one opening for each region on each appointed committee. Those responsible for committee appointments are always glad to know of willing volunteers. Student members are now eligible to serve on all appointed committees with the exception of the Awards Committee.

The PSA has 18 committees that members can volunteer to serve on: endowment, membership, audit, contract monitoring, awards, status of women, status of ethnic minorities, status of gays, lesbians, bisexual and transgenedered persons, teaching, freedom of research and teaching, civil liberties and civil rights, social conscience, student affairs, community colleges, and sociological practice. Members are appointed by the Council and by the President based on recommendation from the Committee on Committees. Self-nominations are acceptable. Serving on a psa Committee is an effective way to network with professional colleagues. If you are interested, please contact the psa office psa@csus.edu and indicate which committee or committees you would like to serve on. A list of committees and a description of what they do is available at pacificsoc.org under “committees.”

To serve on a committee, you must be a member in good standing.

Suggestions for Giving a First-Rate Presentation

I make the following suggestions to new and experienced presenters.

1 Make sure the PSA knows of your A/V needs. Meeting rooms have data projectors & screens. The PSA does not provide laptops. If you need other equipment do not assume it will be available or that it can be ordered at the last minute – it can’t and won’t. You must order it well in advance.

2 Get your completed paper to the discussant at least a month before the meetings. A good review can be tremendously helpful for revising the paper for publication. But it takes time and thought. Every year, however, some discussants do not get papers until they arrive at the meetings. The discussants are doing you a favor. Help them to help you by giving them the time they need.

3 After you have finished your formal written paper, edit it for a presentation version. Remember, you may have only 12-15 minutes to present if there are four other presenters. Discuss only what is important. For a traditional research paper, for example, focus on the findings. Introduce the topic succinctly, summarize the literature briefly, mention the methods in passing and spend most of your time discussing the findings and their implications.

4 Do not read your paper to the audience. Talk about it. The well-crafted written formal sentence may be a better visual than audio experience. Remember, you audience is listening, not reading.

5 Arrive at the session early enough to set up any av equipment you are using. This will also allow you to meet the other panelists. The organizer and/or presider will brief you on organization, order and time limits.

6 Adhere to time limits. Four to five paper presentations, discussant comments, and audience participation do not allow much flexibility in one session. Presiders may enforce appropriate social sanctions on presenters who monopolize time.

7 If you bring copies of your paper for distribution, you may reduce the weight by printing single space on both sides of each page. Many presenters must bring copies of the statistical tables or model figures, perhaps with an abstract.

2010 Book Display

This year’s meeting in Oakland will again include a special book exhibit organized and managed by the library of social science. The exhibit will bring together books covering all dimensions of the field of sociology—and related disciplines. The exhibit will contribute substantially to the intellectual value of our conference by providing a comprehensive collection of the latest and most significant publications.

We seek your input to assist in developing an exhibit that will include books on the full range of topics. If you are an author and wish to have your book included in the exhibit, please respond by email to lssbookexhibits@earthlink.net or fax it to 413.832.8145 providing the following information:

- The title(s) of the book(s) you are recommending, and date(s) of publication.
- The name(s) of the publisher(s).
- The name, telephone number & e-mail address of your contact at each publishing company.

Please be sure to include your own name, telephone number and e-mail address with the information that you send to us, so we can follow up if we require additional information.

If there are other titles that you wish to recommend for inclusion in the display, simply provide the name of the books and their authors.

Please respond to this e-mail immediately, so that we can begin work to assure that the book(s) you have authored or recommended are included in the display. Thank you very much!

Note: To obtain additional information on the book exhibit, authors or publishers may contact me at 718.393.1075 or the email address above.

Regards, Mei Ha Chan

All reservations at the Oakland Marriott Civic Center must be made by March 17 to guarantee the PSA rate. However, please note that the discounted room block could easily sell out before that deadline. The hotel may still have rooms after this date, but at a higher rate.
IMPORTANT! Order A/V Equipment No Later Than March 15

Make sure the PSA office knows about your AV needs. All meeting rooms will have an LCD projector and screen for presentations. The association, however, does not provide laptops. So if you will need AV equipment other than an LCD projector and screen, DO NOT assume it will be in your meeting room or that it can be ordered at the last minute. It can’t and it won’t. You must order it from the PSA weeks before the conference, no later than March 15.

Let us know if you will need any of the following (please specify) and please order only what you will use. Rental is expensive. Last year the AV bill came to over $16,000!

Let us know if you need any of the following. DO NOT order what you won’t be using. AV rental is very expensive.

1) CD player
2) VCR & monitor
3) DVD player & monitor
4) Flip chart with paper and marker
5) Overhead projector for transparencies
6) Other?

Endowment Committee Announces 50 $125 Student Travel Grant Awards

With the approval of Council, the Endowment Committee will offer 50 $125 travel grants available to help pay expenses for graduate and undergraduate students who are giving a presentation at the annual meeting in Oakland.

The travel grant awards will be open only to undergraduate and graduate students who are not employed full-time in an academic or non-academic institution. Students who are eligible must also be listed as a presenter or co-presenter in a conference session in the Preliminary Program for San Diego. The Preliminary Program will be published in the January 2010 Newsletter. Eligible students must also be members in 2010 and must have paid pre-registration fees for the conference. Membership on a committee does not qualify.

Procedures for Application for a Travel Grant

Students who meet the eligibility requirements above, need to send via email their name and email address to Endowment Committee member: Deidre Tyler (deidre.tyler@slcc.edu). The deadline for submission is March 1, 2010. A random-numbers table will be used to assign a number to all eligible applicants. A random drawing will determine the recipients of the travel awards. Recipients will receive an Email confirming they have won an award no later than March 10, 2010. All recipients must pick up their $125 travel grant at the Registration Table at the conference. Identification will be required.

Don’t Let Your Membership Lapse
Renew Online at Pacificsos.org

If you were a member 2009, you should have received the 2010 membership dues renewal form in the mail in December. If you didn’t, chances are the PSA (psa@csus.edu) does not have your correct address.

Membership runs on a calendar year basis (January 1 – December 31). To avoid interruption of delivery of the newsletter & journal, renew ASAP.

Renewal notices have been mailed. If you have misplaced the form, you can download a membership form from the PACIFICSOC.ORG or you can pay online. If you have any questions about your membership and renewal, contact us 916.278.5234 or PSA@CSUS.EDU.

Please inform us of changes in telephone # or mailing & email addresses at psa@csus.edu
Call for Nominations for 2010 Awards

If you wish to submit a nomination for an award, you must supply the supporting materials and documentation detailed below for each award. While it is possible for a person, publication, etc., to be nominated in more than one year, if appropriate, no nominations or supporting materials will be carried over from year to year. It is the nominator’s responsibility to submit the appropriate number of copies – listed below for each award – of supporting materials including articles, books, letters, etc. by the nomination deadline. The deadline will be March 1, 2010 for all awards listed below. The deadline has already passed for nominations for the scholarship award.

You can submit a nomination online for all awards. Visit the web site and click on “nominations for awards” for details. Or you can contact committee members listed below for a specific award.

Distinguished Contributions to Teaching

Dean S. Dorn Outstanding Contributions to Teaching Career Award

The Dean Dorn Outstanding Contributions to Teaching Career Award honors outstanding contributions to the teaching of sociology. The award recognizes individuals whose distinction as teachers have made a significant impact on how sociology is taught. It is typically given for contributions spanning several years, or an entire career. Nominations for this award should be submitted in packet form and include the following information: 1. A summary statement of the nominee’s contributions to the teaching of sociology that may include but is not limited to: honors and awards received by the nominee; publications or scholarly activity related to teaching/pedagogy; papers presented at national conferences on teaching/pedagogy; innovative approaches to teaching; a discussion of the nominee’s impact in disseminating knowledge; leadership in teaching; mentoring students. 2. Current curriculum vitae. 3. A minimum of six letters of support from students and colleagues, including the nominator’s letter. 4. Other supporting documents as deemed relevant (optional).

The Early Career Award for Innovation in Teaching Sociology

The Early Career Award is designed to honor and encourage the work of junior faculty (typically fewer than seven years post-Ph.D.). This award recognizes innovative and creative approaches to teaching and demonstrated commitment to mentoring students. Nominations for this award should be submitted in packet form and include the following information: 1. A summary statement of the nominee’s contributions to the teaching of sociology that may include but is not limited to: discussion of innovative and/or creative approaches to teaching, and a discussion of the nominee’s impact on student learning. 2.
